NEW PRAGUE DANCE FESTIVAL

ONLINE COMPETITION 2021

PROGRAM SUMMARY

Welcome to the NPDF 2021 online edition where the spirit of dance will continue to live, regardless of all the challenges we are facing. This year we have prepared a unique opportunity to put together a worldwide competition, where dance schools, private studios and individuals submit their choreographies, which will be judged by the most elite Czech dance professors and will receive an award for the performance they have so long worked hard for.

THE PROGRAM WILL GO AS FOLLOWS:

First you will send your choreographies and extra required footage to our production team, that will turn it into a 4-day Online Festival.

Our professional production studio will film the content and livestream it in different segments, in the course of 4 days, from Monday July 5th to Thursday July 9th, on a private YouTube channel link.

On the first day there will be an Opening Ceremony, where you will be greeted, different participants will have a chance to present themselves and express their anticipation. We will reveal the Jury and the prizes that will be contested for.

Day 2 and 3, the Competition begins as each group's choreography will be played in front of the Jury, so participants can witness the unique performance from different parts of the world. To improve the visual experience, we will play short video clips from the dance professors who will talk about each dance category and its meaning. We also prepared all NEW 5 Masterclass Workshops that will teach the students professional techniques in Classical, Modern Dance, Hip Hop, Pilates and Makeup art.

On the final day, there will be a grandiose Awards Ceremony with prizes for all the different categories we offer. The dancers will pulse with excitement as there is a certain prize for everyone. The top prize is as always, the Grand Prix of 1000 Euro, the Junior Grand Prix of 500 Euro and also the Grishko Special Award (1000 Euro voucher)

Following that, a special edition Highlight video will be played that will include all the dancers in it.

All the video streams will be up until the festival is over and upon special request you can obtain personalized videos from the whole festival, so you can share with friends online.

Prizes and trophies will be shipped to you and recognition will be given on our website.

We hope you will not miss out on this unique experience where your dancers will be again, in the spotlight of the international dance scene in Prague, but this time online.
